

The Ten Parishes of the Hundred of Salford

In the Mid-1800's
(South-East Lancashire)

Parishes are:

- Ashton under Lyne
- Bolton
- Bury
- Deane
- Eccles
- Manchester
- Middleton
- Prestwich cum Oldham
- Radcliffe
- Rochdale

Key

R is the Parish of Radcliffe

+ denotes main church of the Parish

Note 1: Some parishes control areas that are non contiguous. This is shown by the sharing of colour: Note Middleton (7 pieces), Bury (3 pieces), Bolton (2 pieces); Prestwich cum Oldham (2 pieces).

Note 2: Prestwich and Oldham form a single parish - Prestwich cum Oldham.

Note 3: Aspull is a township, in the Salford Hundred, but attached ecclesiastically to Wigan parish in the West Derby Hundred.

10 Miles

Map adapted from that in Victoria History of Lancashire, Volume 4.

Harry King, San Diego, Nov 25, 2001

Aspull